PREFACE

IT should be the aim of every true Knight of Pythias, imbued with the holy and sublime principles which our fraternity teaches, to carry these tenets into the households of his friends. To make this feature practical, the best way to reach these friends is to induce them to become members of the Order, and make yours and their obligations and desires practically mutual.

To enable brothers to reach those who would adorn our ranks, and who, in the proper transaction of their business, have not had time to gather a satisfactory amount of technical knowledge which would permit them to display or to accept its magnanimity, we have issued this pamphlet of Pythian information, hoping that a better knowledge and a more ennobling influence concerning the Order might be disseminated.

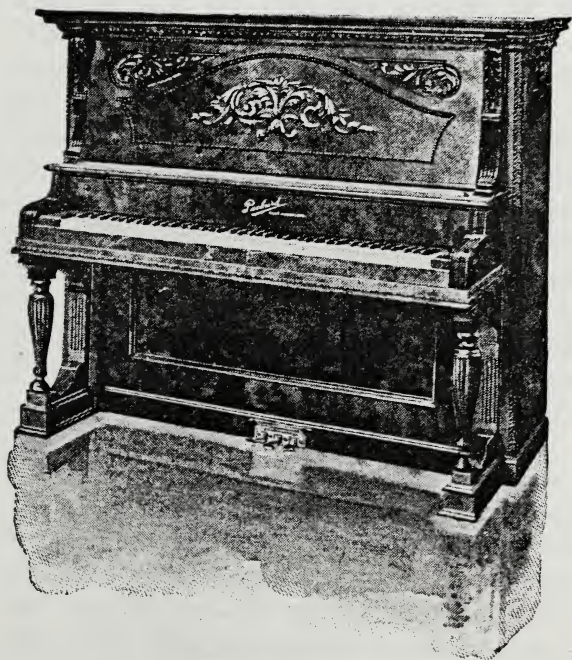

In compiling this little work, we have taken some liberties with a like pamphlet published by the Grand Lodge of Ohio in 1889, and revised and published by Erie Lodge, No. 124. We recognize the value of what matter we have culled from its pages with a hope that the reproduction of it may be as fruitful to Hesperian Lodge in the future as it has been to the fraternity at large in the past.

In this spirit we offer this pamphlet with compliments of HESPERIAN LODGE, NO. 281.
